HOW NHPTV BECAME "STATION OF THE YEAR"

IN OCTOBER 2007, I WAS HONORED to accept the 2007 Station of the Year award from the New Hampshire Association of Broadcasters (NHAB) on behalf of New Hampshire Public Television, its dedicated staff and our loyal supporters. The award is a tribute to our excellence in broadcasting and public service. Here are just some of the reasons why we were recognized in FY08:

Programming. By providing exceptional PBS programs, educational and community initiatives, NHPTV-produced programs such as Windows to the Wild, NH Outlook, Granite State Challenge and Autumn's Passage, as well as excellent locally focused specials (Communities and Consequences, Augustus Saint-Gaudens: Master of American Sculpture and A League of Our Own: NH and the American Craft Movement), NHPTV demonstrates its commitment to the state and region. And our programs continue to garner awards: nine Tellys; three from the Associated Press Broadcasters; and four from NHAB.

Digital transition messaging campaign. To alert viewers about how the switch from analog to digital transmissions on February 17, 2009 will affect them, NHPTV began a messaging campaign in 2007. We are encouraging viewers to contact us with questions. Additionally, NH Outlook produced a "DTV 101" special.

Telling New Hampshire's War Stories. In conjunction with the premiere of Ken Burns' acclaimed World War II documentary, The War, NHPTV initiated its "NH War Stories" effort to collect and preserve these stories. Through our Knowledge Network's student documentary project, we trained teachers to conduct oral histories, and invited students to submit films about veterans and those affected by war. The project culminated in a recognition ceremony in June, an opportunity to meet Ken Burns, and the students' films were posted on nhptv.org/thewar. Also, NH Outlook produced two programs featuring WWII stories from New Hampshire's own communities.

Our LiveFIT NH community engagement initiative, which encourages healthy eating and physical activity in children and adults, was selected to serve as a model to other PBS stations for health and nutrition programming and outreach efforts.

NH Outlook presented several new LiveFIT NH specials. Through our statewide partner organizations, we distributed DVDs with the LFNH programs and six "Fit Tips" breaks. Also, our Ready To Learn service conducted workshops around NH.

The First in the Nation Primary inaugurated our NH Votes 2008 focus in covering candidates and issues. NHPTV's Knowledge Network again sponsored the NH Primary Mock Election, in which 11,500 students voted for presidential candidates and on issues facing our country.

Anniversaries. Granite State Challenge celebrated its 25th season this year. And our Spring Auction marked 35 years of excitement, value and volunteer power, raising a record $500,000 for NHPTV's programs and services.

Other milestones. We continued to offer state-focused political content on-air and at nhptv.org. We expanded our distribution channels to the Seacoast's C&J bus system, YouTube and iTunes. Our Educational Services Division, the Knowledge Network, had over 3 million visitors to its website. The division is known as a highly valued resource for quality media-rich curriculum content and professional development for teachers.

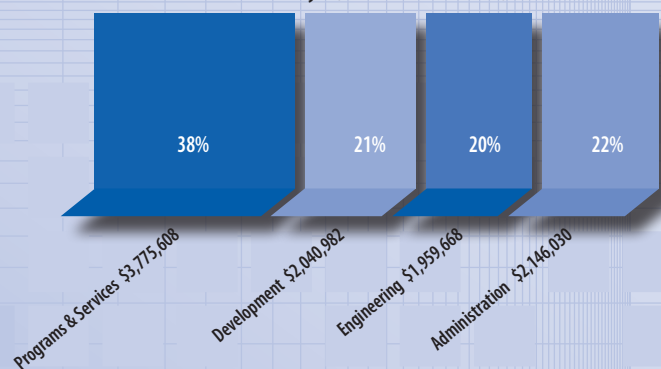

Thank you for your continued support and involvement this past year, and for enabling New Hampshire Public Television to engage minds, connect communities and celebrate New Hampshire.

– Peter A. Frid
CEO and General Manager

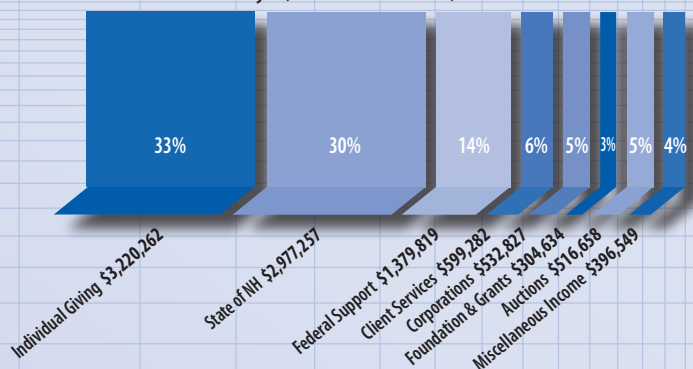

In recognition of our excellence in broadcasting and public service, the NHAB named NHPTV 2007 Station of the Year.

EXPENDITURES July 1, 2007 - June 30, 2008

REVENUES July 1, 2007 - June 30, 2008

In Fiscal Year 2008, New Hampshire Public Television programs and services continued to make a difference in the lives of people in Northern New England.

Our deepest appreciation goes to NHPTV's valued partners and supporters for investing in programs that entertain, educate and enrich lives in our communities.
